Plea Options***

The judge will ask you to enter a "plea" at your first appearance. You have three options.

- Plea of "Guilty" – By a plea of guilty, you admit that the act is prohibited by law and that you committed the offense.
- Plea of "Nolo Contendere" (no contest) – A plea of nolo contendere means that you do not contest the State's charge against you. You will be found guilty of the offense in most cases.
- Plea of "Not Guilty" – A plea of not guilty means that you deny guilt. The court will then set your case for a pretrial hearing, prior to setting your case for trial. If your case goes to trial, you will need to select whether you want a jury trial or a bench trial. If you wish to have a bench trial, the prosecutor must also agree to the judge hearing the case.

Please note, the Judge will not discuss your ticket or your case with you, unless you have pled "guilty" or "no contest," or the Prosecutor is also present
